“Oven-Baked Cream Puff”

Inside the crisp cookie choux is a generous filling of rich, smooth cream, made by combining fresh cream with custard cooked using “Sakura” eggs, which come from purely domestic Japanese-bred hens. The filling is so generous that it almost spills out when you split the puff open down the middle, and the pairing of the fragrant pastry and the cream that fill your mouth is so delicious that, after one taste, you will find yourself wanting to have it again. For the sugar, we use “kibi sugar” (cane sugar), which is gentle on the body, and no additives are used, so everyone can enjoy it with peace of mind.
